ON THE ROAD To The Title

By David Cooper

BLACKTOWN vs BANKSTOWN

Both sides are coming off good wins that have kept them firmly in contention for a finals place. Blacktown's victory up at Pluim Park was especially noteworthy. To come from behind and win when down to ten men is a great victory. Blacktown's second half performances have been terrific this year and at least 80% of their goals have probably come in this half, showing you can't relax against them. Bankstown continue to produce Jeckyll and Hyde performances. Failed to break, the leakiest defence in St. George the week before, but came out and scored two to beat one of the best defences in the league - Leichhardt. Face another tough defence line in this match but they will give themselves every chance to win. But at home, you would have to say the Demons to win.

MACARTHUR vs CENTRAL COAST

Is a must win game for both sides, who have struggled of late to get results. Both have dropped off the pace and find themselves seven points adrift of fifth place, albeit with games in hand. Macarthur in particular have failed to live up to expectations of their early season promise and need a win badly to regain their confidence. Last weekends wash out would not have helped matters. The Coasties once again only have themselves to blame for losing points. Had numerous chances to beat the Demons but let a ten-men Blacktown score twice in the final ten minutes. Have played good football at times but just lack composure in front of goals. Tough to predict but a draw is good odds.

PARRAMATTA vs RYDE

The signs for Parramatta are getting better with every week. After a fairly ordinary start to their title defence, the return of key players Steve Karavatakis and Gabriel Mendez has certainly added a new dimension to the side. The 4-0 win was a little closer than it looks, as they scored three times in the last 15 minutes and Sutherland only had 10 men on the park. Ryde City is also coming off a great win after they beat Bonnyrigg 1-0. After a hectic few weeks, this result is just what the doctor ordered. Not only will morale be restored but it will give the players plenty of confidence that more wins are on the way. They drew with Parramatta in the pre-season but it is a different Eagles side, who should win at home.

ST. GEORGE vs SUTHERLAND

Most pundits predicted that these two would fight it out for the wooden spoon and unfortunately they look right. The Saints have secured just one point to date and their results have not been good. They are nearly conceding an average of three goals a game and are struggling in front of goals. Were no match for Canterbury last weekend and with Ryde winning they now find themselves alone at the bottom. Sutherland started well enough but their last three matches have resulted in big losses. They have all been to sides that are expected to figure prominently for the finals, so they will welcome the chance to play the Saints and hope to get a winning feeling again. Both will go all out for a win, so there could be plenty of goalmouth action. A draw looks good in this one.

LEICHHARDT vs CANTERBURY

This game is set for an intriguing clash between two sides who are near neighbours and out to claim to the tag of 'best in the inner west'. Leichhardt has had a mixed few weeks and as a result have slipped just out of the five by a full game. They must be thankful that John Buonavoglia continues to be a menace for all defences otherwise they might be in a little more strife. Canterbury on the other hand are continuing on their merry way and are sitting second but only on goal difference. Were far too good for St. George last weekend and probably should have won even more comfortably. Jim Nikas, Simon Fedele and Jose Mendes are all in great form, while the defence is proving very hard to penetrate.

EASTERN SUBURBS vs BONNYRIGG

A rematch of the Pre-Season Cup final where Easts pulled off an upset to beat their more fancied rivals. Bonnyrigg will not have forgotten that, but the only problem for them is that Easts have continued with that good form and Bonnyrigg have slipped up a little in recent weeks. Since their first round loss to Bankstown, Easts have been unbeaten since, winning five of those and putting them on top of the table. Beat Sutherland midweek but their game with Macarthur was postponed. Bonnyrigg however are coming off a demoralising loss to Ryde, who were sitting equal bottom going into the game. Considering they were playing at home, they should have won easily. John Turner will be sure to rev his boys up and expect this to be a close affair. On form Easts to win but not with any certainty.

BERRIES LOOKING GOOD

Canterbury Marrickville consolidated their position in the five with a comfortable 2-0 win over St. George at Henson Park.

Goals by Jim Nikas and Simon Fedele were the main highlights of a fairly uninspiring match which Canterbury dominated from start to finish.

The win saw the Berries move into second spot behind Eastern Suburbs but only on goal difference while for St. George it was their sixth loss in the opening seven games and leaves them in sole last place.

They struggled too match Canterbury both in skill and physically and found themselves defending for long periods of the match.

The signs were there early on as Canterbury controlled possession with Simon Fedele and Jose Mendes pulling the strings for the home side.

Saints keeper Robert Graskoski prevented a certain goal in the 9th minute, blocking off Robert Jerkovic's cross to Nikas who was staring at an empty net.

Seven minutes later, Nikas was denied a goal after receiving a cross and cutting back inside, shooting wide of Graskoski but finding the outside of the near post.

Graskoski came to his side rescue again in the 31st minute, tipping a Matthew Percy header onto the top of the bar.

All Canterbury's dominance nearly came to nothing though, when Saints striker Alex Araujo caught the Berries defence square, releasing Steve Lombardo. The wide midfielder raced towards goal before unleashing a terrific shot which beat Steve Tolios but cannoned into the near post.

Lucky to survive that attack, Nikas made no mistake with his next chance, racing onto a perfect through ball from Jerkovic and placing his shot past a badly exposed Graskoski.

It was the same scenario after the break with Canterbury doing most of the attacking despite now playing into a stiff breeze.

Jerkovic shot straight to Graskoski, while the Saints keeper made a brilliant reflex save to deny Nikas a second goal shortly afterwards.

Tolios, made the first of his two telling saves in the 53rd minute, denying a Fabio Macolino thunderbolt, after he was able to get loose in the Berries penalty area.

The Berries continued to create chances but didn't make sure of victory until the 73rd minute. Percy made a run into the box but was tackled and the ball ran free to Fedele who drilled a powerful shot from the edge of the box past the despairing dive of Graskoski.

Jerkovic was denied a goal by a goalline clearance, while Tolios robbed Saints substitute Rabeh Nasser a late consolation goal with a brave dive at the young striker's feet.

Canterbury: Tolios, Raeburn, Shepherd (Tsigolis), Mendes, Percy, Hantzis, Jerkovic, Fedele (Anagnostopoulos), Nikas, Markopoulos, Talcevski.

St. George: Graskoski, Scotti, Molachino, Doyle, Pillemer (Nasser), Martinez (Gibson), Araujo, Lombardo, Toombs, Macolino.

Jon Angelucci and Steve Berry once again earned Blacktown City three points, with late goals in their 3-1 victory over Central Coast at Pluim Park.

What made the win even more remarkable, was the Demons were reduced to ten men after former Central Coast favourite Steve Cutler received his marching orders with 20 minutes remaining.

It is the third time this year that Angelucci and Berry have produced match winning goals for the Demons in the final ten minutes of games.

In a game that produced quite a number of good chances, the Coasties again letting themselves down with some poor finishing in front of goals.

The first half was played at a fast pace which had the big crowd in attendance entertained thoroughly.

Blacktown dominated early but it was Glen Sprod for the Coasties that forced a good save from a keeper, Greco saving his shot well down low.

Derek Caisley was denied by Greco shortly after, while Cutler called on Coasties keeper Gary Meier to make a save in the 21st minute.

Sarkis Boudaher and Berry missed golden opportunities for the Demons and were made to suffer just before half-time, Peter Preston putting the Coasties in front with a good low shot from 20 metres, that found its way through the defence.

The home side should have extended that lead after the break but were denied by determined Demons defence. Preston shot wide of the post, while Shane Knight beat Greco but not the scrambling Demons defenders, while Paul Roberts was also denied by scrambling defence.

Blacktown made them pay for these misses, when Fernando Greco after saving well from a Derek Caisley shot, released the ball quickly down the right. Damon Langan was fed the ball and his cross found Aaron Holst who steered home to level the scores.

Cutler's send-off for a second yellow card, looked to have swung the game in the Coasties favour. Knight shot across the face of goal, while Preston was denied by yet another good save from Greco, who was in outstanding form.

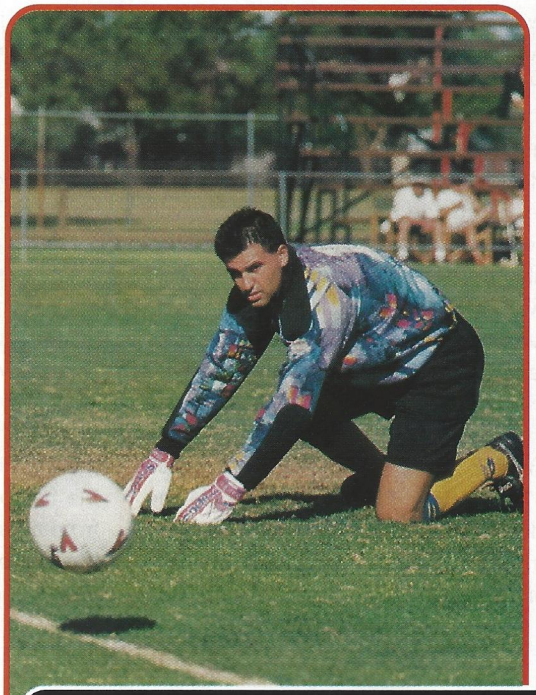
Buoyed by his save, Blacktown lifted the tempo of the game, and in the 81st minute Angelucci put the Demons in front with a good shot that went in off the post.

Three minutes later Berry clinched an amazing win with a perfectly directed header back across goal and inside the far post.

The win has maintained Blacktown's firm top five spot while the Coasties have slipped a little of the pace and need to start winning games to keep in touch.

Coasties: Meier, Margin, Steele, Beveridge, Knight, Preston, Byrn, Roberts, Caisley, Sprod, Sontag.

Blacktown: Greco, Cutler, Foxe, Langan, Smith, Angelucci, Berry, Boudaher (Faria), Bradley (Yates), Blake, Holst.



Ryde keeper Anthony Avellino denied Bonnyrigg an equaliser with several telling saves.

Eastern Suburbs, moved to the top of the table, after a resounding 4-0 win over Sutherland Sharks at Seymour Shaw Park last Wednesday night.

The deferred Round 5 match, saw the Wanderers dominate from the start and they fully deserved their comprehensive victory.

Recent signing Jason Bennett scored a brace before half-time to give Easts a handy lead at the break.

His first effort in the 24th minute came from a corner. He was able to pounce from six yards out with a good turn and shot that gave Paul Henderson no chance.

A good through ball from Craig Sharpley provided Bennett with his second in the 38th minute, beating the advancing Henderson with a good low shot.

Easts other new striker this season, Scott Mutton, added a third soon after the break after he was put through.

Mick Daniels wrapped up the scoring in the 67th minute, shooting home after a goalmouth scramble developed in the penalty box.

The win moved Easts two points clear at the top of the table, wiping away the thoughts that their Pre-Season Cup win was just a flash in the pan effort.

Parramatta Eagles moved to within two points of the five after a 4-0 victory over Sutherland Sharks at Seymour

Recent singing Jason Bennett scored a brace before half-time to give Easts a handy lead at the break.

Shaw Park.

A first minute goal to Saso Boskovski set Parramatta on the road to victory but they were continually frustrated by some dogged Sharks defence.

However soon after the break, the game changed complexion with Sutherland's Robert Saveski getting his marching orders after receiving a second yellow card.

It wasn't until the 79th minute that Parramatta secured the points with Gabriel Mendez scoring his first for the year.

Further goals to Steve Karavatakis and Mark Reveley only added to the Sharks misery after what was a very determined defensive performance in the second half.

position just two points away from the leaders, a good effort considering their disastrous pre-season.

Ryde City produced the upset of the year to date, beating Bonnyrigg White Eagles with a lone goal at the Serbian Centre.

Sitting bottom of the table, Ryde was expected to be easy pickings for the second placed Bonnyrigg side.

Played on a heavy pitch, the settled down to a midfield struggle. However in the 10th minute a Ryde free kick led to the only goal of the game. Tim Stratford emerged with the ball on the edge of the area and from an acute angle was able to slot the ball past Eagles' keeper Mladen Kos.

John Buonavoglia scored for the seventh game in a row.

John Buonavoglia scored for the seventh game in a row but it wasn't enough to stop Leichhardt Tigers losing 1-2 to Bankstown City at Jensen Park.

Tony Josevski produced the winning goal for Bankstown 18 minutes from the end.

Michael Hawrysiuk put the home side ahead just before half-time but Buonavoglia evened it up ten minutes into the second half.

Both sides went for the win with Josevski being the one to crack open the defence of Leichhardt and grab the winner.

The win moves Bankstown into fourth

Ryde's Nils Johnnson had two great chances to extend the lead but wasted both.

Bonnyrigg were unlucky not to have an equaliser soon after the break, David Harding's shot beating Anthony Avellino but not Troy Shipley on the goalline.

Avellino produced a stunning save to deny a Paul Richardson effort.

Bonnyrigg's frustration became evident and when Goran Vulic handled the ball into the net, referee Greg Leverton had no choice but to send him off.

Ryde nearly had another goal right at the death, with Adam Peatey hitting the post with a powerful shot.

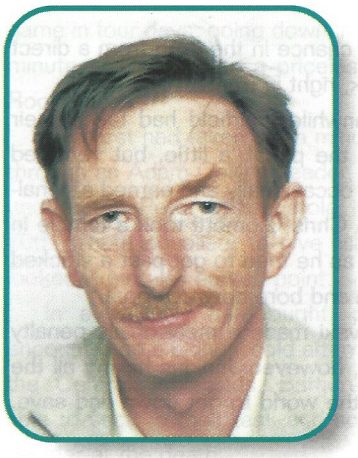
PAUL GOODWIN REPORTS



BULLS AND HAWKS WIN WELL

Fairfield and Stanmore - the Bulls and the Hawks, as they are more commonly known - continued on their winning way on last Sunday.

On a weekend when the weather caused another swag of washouts the points these two clubs now have in the bag are sure to prove extremely useful later on.

Fairfield began cautiously against a Rockdale side reeling from the midweek resignation of their coach Bill Pilovski, but were almost caught out by a chip over the keeper by veteran Zlatko Markovski in the 2nd minute, which just cleared the bar.

Finding their feet after this early scare, the Bulls took the lead somewhat against the run of play when an alert Darren Iocca, spotting Derek Jenkins off his line, chipped the keeper from 20 yards as the former Marconi man found himself, suddenly, free in space.

Rockdale sagged a little after this setback, but on the half hour and from a superb diagonal ball lifted over the heads of defenders by Iain Macdonald from out on the touchline near half way, Bill Petrovski was able to go on and beat Angelo Rodic to bring the scores level.

The visitors' joy was shortlived, however, as a free kick taken quickly by Chris Giometti, from wide on the right, fell at the feet of Iocca, whose shot was blocked, but came back nicely for Saso Talevski to swoop and score at close range in the 31st minute.

Worse was to follow for Rockdale and their large band of followers. Nihad Ahmed's corner from the left in the 44th was met by the head of Ante Zizic at the far post and though the ball was stopped on the line by Petrovski, Iocca was on hand to put away the loose ball.

Both sides seemed to sit back in the second half, with Rockdale surprisingly reluctant to commit large numbers forward, but the Suns did have one good chance in the 53rd as Spase Najdoski somehow managed to screw his shot wide after another gem of a pass from Macdonald.

Macdonald was later to suffer a freak injury as he stumbled on the uneven turf on the outer edges of the pitch and his absence was clearly apparent thereafter.

Najdoski, for his part, also missed another chance in the 74th from a direct free kick, right in front.

Meanwhile, Fairfield had taken their foot off the pedal, a little, but ventured forward occasionally and earned a penalty when Chris Giometti took a tumble in the box as he tried to get past a stacked defence and bore down on goal.

Talevski made a meal of his penalty attempt, however, Jenkins having all the time in the world to get down and save, low to his right.

Rockdale pegged one back, eventually, in the 82nd after Aleks Chumkovski had threaded the ball through for Petrovski to go on and chip the keeper.

Fairfield maintained their unblemished home record and kept the pressure on the leaders but with a win which was far from convincing.

After taking over, just for this game, Rockdale's acting coach Bill Boskovski was disappointed with the performance of some of his senior players, but praised the efforts of the younger brigade.

Rockdale officials turned to former coach Illiya Takach to take over the team duties from Tuesday night and the club is counting on the man who first won the club promotion to get things back on track after three straight losses.

The new coach will clearly need more support than was given to his predecessor, Bill Pilovski, who made good his threat to resign when his team was unable to turn a 1-1 half time score against Auburn, recently, into a victory.

Stanmore had little trouble beating Illawarra Lions on Sunday at Ian McLellan Park, though it was a windswept ground that faced the teams on this occasion.

Eddie Briscoe had a penalty attempt saved along the way as his side demolished the Lions 3-0. Briscoe opened the scoring in the 3rd minute from a free kick and then provided the flick-on which saw Mario Rositanno nab the second twelve minutes later.

Eddie Briscoe had a penalty attempt saved along the way as his side demolished the Lions 3-0.

Rockdale City Suns favourite Zlatko Markovski.

Briscoe and the little known Rositanno had played together as members of the South Australian state team a few years ago and the renewed partnership is paying dividends.

Briscoe sought the referee's permission before despatching a quickly taken free kick past the keeper in the 66th minute to complete a comprehensive Stanmore win.

Moorebank were busy on Wednesday night, catching up with Hills United at Hammondville Oval in the game which had previously been lost due to floodlight failure.

Under leaden skies and in soaking rain the two sides plugged it out on the heavy pitch, both coaches agreeing that the pitch was playable, despite several days of incessant rain.

Kyle Scott was back in the Moorebank goal and pulled off some crucial saves which kept the scoredsheet blank at half time. Passes began to find their men in the second half after an untidy first period and Moorebank went ahead in the 63rd through Stuart Key, who hit a nice left-footer just inside the left post after a corner had been swung over from the right.

They say that lightning doesn't strike in the same place twice, but these teams were thunderstruck when the local storm knocked the lights out, with just 12 minutes to go. Thankfully they did not have to come back a third time as the electricity was soon restored and the game ran its course, with substitute Will Croker beating the keeper with a shot from wide out on the right, from beyond the confines of the penalty area.

Moorebank were less lucky on Sunday when their game with Penrith was unable to proceed, but did have another game on Wednesday last at Fairfield to look forward to and one which would test their undefeated run to the limit.

It was probably their defensive record which would be most at risk after keeping five clean sheets in succession and then facing a bunch of profilic scorers like the Bulls.

Hills had no joy on their second away game in four days, going down in the last minute at Bathurst to a priceless Mark Rooke goal.

Bathurst had taken a 6th minute lead through an Adam Collins header, but the under-rated Peter Vezos stole in for a 70th minute equaliser to give Hills what looked like a well earned point.

In a typically hard-fought, physical encounter on a bitingly cold afternoon on the Central Tablelands, Bathurst were able to stick to their task and score the decider at the death.

After an initial Hills flurry, which saw Bathurst keeper Matthew Baillie called upon to make a critical early save, the home team moved swiftly upfield and created the opening which led to the first goal.

Andre Lemoin showed outstanding pace on the right and crossed for Shaun Dixon whose high ball into the box was nodded past Shaun Woods by Adam Collins.

Mark Rooke and Kerry Johns both tested Woods with good shots in the first half, the latter after a great run down the right.

Hills punished Bathurst for some wayward finishing in the second half to snatch an equaliser, following a corner, thanks to a deflection off Vezos and almost took the lead as Darren Moss skimmed the bar with a another sharp shot.

Brent Griffiths made the last of his many searching runs to set up the winner for Bathurst when he found Lemoin with a precision pass. From Lemoin's cross Rooke turned and volleyed superbly, capping another strong game for the experienced striker.

Tony Clancy and Lemoin supported Rooke with their consistent contributions and skipper Ken Barwick was as steady as ever at the back.

Auburn showed that they can win games at Mona Park, just as well as anywhere else, albeit against bottom dogs Mount Pritchard.

The goal Unal Ogmen scored for the home side in the 34th was cancelled out ten minutes later by the effervescent Greg Baldock, but a Nabil Codmani goal sealed the Mounties' fate in the 70th minute.

Belmore's game with Manly Warringah was an early victim of the weather, Blick Oval being pulled out on Friday, while a mid-morning inspection of Abruzzi Oval led to the Sunday postponement of AC United's big game with Hurstville City Minotaurs.

ROUND TWELVE PREVIEW

Catch up games are likely to be scheduled at short notice over the next few weeks, but for the moment Sunday holds most interest.

After a midweek game for two Wednesdays in succession Moorebank will have a chance to test their sound recent form against Stanmore at Arlington Oval where a big crowd should get along to see a tense encounter.

Manly-Warringah has a tricky one against AC United a side which they beat 5-0 in a pre-season trial. Much has happened since then, with AC defence tightening considerably. AC may exact revege, but don't count on it as Manly is a young side growing in confidence and keen to get back into action after rain-enforced lay-offs.

Bathurst is going to be made to work overtime to repel the Hurstville City Minotaurs who are desperate for points to reclaim lost ground, after recent losses and washouts. The home team is playing as well as ever, just not putting the goals away as often as they would like.

Minotaurs will need to win this to stay on course for back to back titles.

If Fairfield Bulls get too cocky then their neighbours Mount Pritchard may make them pay, but with Darren Iocca, Angelo Rodic and Ante Zizic in the Bulls' side a visit to their old stamping ground is one those players, at least, will relish. Bulls should prevail.

The Macedonian derby at Rockdale is intriguing as both sides are in a form slump and surely anything could happen here. A Lions win is definitely on the cards, but Rockdale's new boss Illiya Takach will surely disagree with that.

Penrith are to play Belmore at Cook Park St Marys and must be wary as the visitors could be ready to include some fresh, young blood by now. Belmore may make it two in a row.

Hills United completes a fascinating round with a visit to Fred Caterson by Auburn who will be lively, but surely not lively enough to take points from the Castle Hill locals.

2nd DIVISION

By Paul Goodwin and Tony Dunne

The Second Division premiership race gained further momentum when unbeaten Hajduk Wanderers returned from a tough game at Popondetta Park with three more valuable points, following a 3-2 win over the home side, Mount Druitt Town Rangers.

Though Mount Druitt were missing their most experienced player, Geoff Chew, they were always going to find it hard to beat this talented side from St Johns Park.

The first half was tight and it was not until the 43rd minute that Damien Brown was able to break through a stubborn Mount Druitt defence and open the scoring.

Brown turned the ball into goal after a cross to the far post and then in the second half added a second to give Wanderers a scent of victory.

Mount Druitt fought back to 2-1 as Paul Graham controlled the ball well and sauntered past a defender in the 81st, but a foul by Lindsay Lorch led to Joseph Elul converting from the spot to re-establish the two goal cushion in the 88th.

Though Ricardo Sandoval scored again for Mount Druitt in the dying seconds after some slick foot work close to goal, Hajduk were always at least a one goal better side and are on course for an eagerly anticipated showdown with leaders Dulwich Hill at Hajduk Stadium in a fortnight.

Dulwich Hill's game with Greystanes, at Bathurst Street Park, another very interesting looking fixture was washed out, as was the game between Parramatta City and Sydney Districts at Eric Primrose Reserve.

District, who are ground-sharing with Fraser Park this season are now two games behind the others.

At Marrickville Oval in the Greek derby Alexander Warriors dropped two more expected points when held to 2-2 by a hitherto unimpressive Gladesville United.

The pitch was in great shape and the home side was at full strength, yet they managed to surrender a 2-1 lead against a team reduced to ten men before the break.

In a scene reminiscent of their recent loss to Hurstville the Gold and Blacks find the extra man more of a hindrance than a help, it would seem.

Ray Fudo shocked the locals with a goal for Gladesville in the 19th, but the visitors' were ahead for only a short time as John Gouskas put Alexander level in the 25th when he hit a speculative shot, from outside the box, into the roof of the net after making a big run through the middle.

Georgio Manuli then made it 2-1 in the 35th after a solid build up and following a sequence of blocked shots.

The Alexander keeper complained of being blinded by the sun when unable to catch sight of a shot from Castellana which came from wide on the right and found its way into the bottom of the net in the 61st.

Despite constant pressure Alexander was unable to regain the lead and in truth has failed to fire at Marrickville after some impressive away performances early on in the season.

University of NSW, beaten the previous weekend by Alexander, bounced back to win only their second this term when 1-0 victors over Liverpool at Ernie Smith Reserve.

A game plan well thought out by the University coach and players paid off when an early goal from the penalty spot by Victor Jago was enough to earn the spoils.

Well aware of their lack of fire power, but huge workrate, the team set about establishing a quick ascendancy which brought the vital first goal. Flame haired front runner Duncan Boss-Walker broke down the right and cut the ball back to Jago whose pass for Tim Nelson saw the youngster attempt to round the keeper only to be brought down in the box.

Uni's task then was to defend and defend they did with a great deal of their renowned commitment. Debut boy Joe Dubnik had a very good game to start his first grade career and the all round team effort bolstered by Jago's switch back to a deeper role later in the game saw the students home.

Arncliffe returned to their best with a gutsy 2-1 win over Hurstville at a windswept Scots Field.

Mike Grbevski faced Hurstville keeper Tom Miletic twice before getting the better of the exposed last man and then opened the scoring in the 12th minute.

Substitute Dennis Lukenic capitalised on a break down the right by the speedy Bob Simunic in the 55th minute to put his team level, but it was not to be Hurstville's day as the veteran Grbevski used his guile to steal the ball from Miletic who attempted to play the ball out from his own goal, succeeding only in losing possession and providing the Arncliffe man with an empty net.

NEW SOUTH WALES
INSTITUTE OF SPORT

IS WINNING EVERYTHING??

In Youth Football, are coaches there to win the competition, or to develop players? If winning were the only criterion, then there would be only one successful coach each season in every competition. Australia's standing as a football nation would suggest we had more successful coaches than that in all our Youth Leagues, coaches who are improving players not coaching purely to win. There are a great number of coaches out there doing a terrific job with our youngsters.

In our state, many of these talented young players are selected for the NSW Institute of Sport Soccer Program. This is jointly funded by Soccer NSW, Soccer Australia and the NSW Institute of Sport (a State Government body), and is part of the National Team pathway. Players are selected initially for a one-year scholarship. The squad competes in the National Youth League, which is an U/19 competition, and has an average age of players just under 17. What chance did this squad have of winning the competition? Bear in mind that every other team uses up to four over-age players from the senior squad (except the AIS). Of course you would not expect such a young team to feature in the finals. Instead, performance is measured by other means. For example, you would wonder how many players from the squad are involved in National Youth teams. Seven players out of seven eligible, were selected for the most recent Joeys (National U/17) camp in Adelaide; three players out of six eligible were selected for the most recent Young Socceroos (National U/20) camp at Parklea, two of whom are younger than the target age group. And four players were selected for scholarships at the Australian Institute of Sport in Canberra, a National program. No other single squad can match these figures.

What do the players get?

As well as three nights training at Parklea, Institute players are placed on strength training programs, monitored by a professional ex AIS weights coach. Strength training varies from once per week during the season, up to two or three times per week in the off season. A professional sprint coach with AIS experience conducts speed training throughout the season.

Players attend three camps per year, at a subsidised cost, in addition to any National Team camps they are selected for. Each player also receives one individual or small group training session per week, where the head coach visits the players in their own area before school or during the sports afternoon etc.

The focus at training is on intensive development, and one coach alone can't do that. Using a highly qualified Head Coach, Assistant Coach, Skills Coach and Goalkeeper Coach, players receive arguably the most intensive training available anywhere outside the AIS.

Players are also given access to the following services at an international standard:

- Sports Medicine
- Athlete career Education Programs
- Sport Science support (testing etc)
- Social and communication skills development programs
- Nutritional education programs

At all times players' interests are put first, especially where selection for National Teams is concerned.

National Youth coach, Les Scheinflug, is a firm believer in the program. He does not care that the NSWIS side finished tenth in a competition designed for much older players and first graders. He looks at the high level of competition being experienced by players who will represent Australia under his guidance.

One might also point to the fact that four midfield players left the program half way through the season to join the AIS in Canberra. But one must also look for the positive points.

- Fourteen players receiving National recognition (Joeys, U/20s, AIS)
- Beating minor premiers AIS, 4-1, inflicting their heaviest defeat of the season
- Daniel Watkins, 4th placed in the top goal scorers list - 11 goals in 14 games
- The best disciplinary record in the National Youth League.

Teenage Revolution

By Barry Davis

The wet weather once again caused massive disruptions to the Youth League programme last weekend and this will mean a huge number of rearranged fixtures. Competition Secretary Graham Crawhall tells me he has a whole raft of rearranged matches from the last spell of wet weather ad now the whole process needs to be repeated. undoubtedly, this will cause some difficulty for some of the clubs involved as their grounds and facilities, not to mention their many volunteers, in coping with the heavy schedule of events.

In Super Youth League Blacktown City V Southern Districts, Marconi Fairfield V Parramatta Eagles, Wollongong City V Gladesville Hornsby and Macarthur Rams V Newcastle Breakers were all washed out, leaving only three set of games being played.

In Division One Youth League, St George V Penrith Panthers, Bankstown Association V Bonnyrigg White Eagles, CSI Schofield V Nepean Association and Ryde City V Canterbury Association fixtures were unable to be played, again leaving only three sets of matches being played

It was a sad story in Division Two Youth League where all the matches were rained off.

Over the next couple of weeks there is sure to be some fairly heavy duty negotiations between the various club and Association secretaries to find mutually suitable dates for these matches to be made up.

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

In the matches played in Super Youth League, Sydney Olympic collected ten points against Sutherland Shire at the Solander Playing Fields, Manly Warringah picked up nine points from Eastern Suburbs at Jellicoe Park and Leichhardt Tigers took seven points from Sydney United at the Croatia Sports Centre.

Eduardo Moerbeck's Olympic 13s retained top spot on the table with a 2-0 win over Terry Stewart's Sutherland. Omar Obeid scored the first one with a fine effort from the edge of the box after beating two defenders. The second one came after an excellent team build up which culminated in Super Sub "GG" Cabrera finding the back of the net. Paul Smith's 14s gained the only point of the day for Sutherland with a 1-1 draw with Sam D'Allesandro's Olympic. The coaching pairing of Tom Demos and George Paradisis continues to do well for Olympic's 15s, this time reaping a 5-1 result over Max Groll's charges. Olympic capped off a good day when John Davies' 16s came away 6-2 winners over George Daskalopoulos' boys.

Theses results leave Sydney Olympic on top of the Combined Tables once again and they are seven points clear of Newcastle Breakers who have played two more rounds.

Eastern Suburbs had to move away from their "new" home at Blick Oval for the second week in a row to find playable surfaces. This time in was to be found at the ever-reliable Jellicoe Park but it did not bring them any good news, winning one match and allowing the visiting Manly Warringah to escape with the rest.

Richard Paddle has his Manly 13s ticking over the points this season. Their 2-1 victory over Allan Jones' boys was their fourth win of the season and sees them into fifth place on the table. Tony Del Vecchio gave Eastern Suburbs their only good news for the day when his lads recorded a sound 4-0 win over foot of the table Manly. This was the first win of the season for Easts' 14s and it takes them away from the bottom spot. The Northern Beaches outfit resumed their winning ways in the 15s when Mark Gale's side recorded a 2-0 victory over the Steve Lawrence coached Eastern Suburbs. Then Mark Channell's 16s continued the success for Manly with a 2-0 win over Graham Schofield's lot. Eastern Suburbs still have much to do to escape the dreaded relegation zone even though they are eight points clear of last placed Macarthur. Manly, on the other hand are making steady progress toward the middle of the table and should be well satisfied with their efforts to date.

Leichhardt Tigers are another club which is starting to inch its way up the table after the "horror draw" start to the season. They are now picking up good points on a regular basis and could well find themselves in a mid-table position by the end of the season.

Steve Mayer's Sydney United 13s posted their second win of the year with a fine 5-3 effort over the Tigers to come away from the bottom of the table. However, in the 14s Leichhardt squared things up for the visitors with a hard fought 2-1 win over Allan Griffiths lads. The good results continued for the Tigers when their 15s knocked off United to the tune of 5-1. This was their best result of the season so far. Ian Rudgeley's 16s got United back on track with a 1-1 draw and a closely contested encounter.

If they are to make any real impact on the top of the table, United had better start their run now as they are beginning to lose touch with the top group.

DIVISION ONE YOUTH LEAGUE

In Division One Youth League matches played last weekend, Rockdale City Suns could only manage to gain four points from the visiting Blacktown Association while Illawarra Lions and Central Coast split the points evenly at the BHP Sportsground as did Southern Branch and AC United at South Nowra.

Central Coast, AC United and Southern Branch are still fighting out a Battle Royal at the top end of the Combined Table with St George not far behind them. At the other end, Rockdale City Suns, CSI Schofield and Nepean Association are battling to keep their heads above water.

At the Rockdale Sports Centre the Suns started their day well enough as Joe Camileri's 13s recorded their first win of the year with a 2-0 result over Trevor Spinks' side. This leaves the bottom end of the 13s table in an interesting state with Nepean in last place and four other teams only one point better off. Jeff Suzor's 14s evened things up for the visitors with a neat 1-0 win over Alex Poposki's boys. Then the coaches had to sit back and watch as their respective teams fought out a 1-1 draw in the 15s to leave the points even at that stage. This placed even greater emphasis on the outcome of the 16s match. One this occasion George Koimanis' Blacktown boys gained the upper hand with a 1-0 win over Alex Beard's team.

Blacktown are now in fifth place and could surprise many with a charge into the top four in the coming weeks. Their 14s, 15s and 16s are all performing with consistency but their 13s are still suffering through a lack of quality players. Still, the three older teams could carry them forward on the Combined Table.

Illawarra edged closer to the top four in the 13s with a good 3-2 win in the 13s on Saturday. Geoff Costello's side are now only four points away from fourth place and may still sneak in as the season is yet young. Graeme Hutch's Coasties have retained second spot - on goal difference - but they have played at least two more rounds than their nearest rivals. The 14s was another tight affair and Steve Mackie's team squared accounts for the visitors with a 2-1 win over Steve Srbinovski's Lions. This result gives Central Coast top spot but it did not help the Lions to escape the bottom end of the table. Illawarra regained the supremacy in the 15s when Steve Leighton's charges won 2-1 over Dave Fitzsimmons boys, an outcome which puts the lions into third place with fewer games played than the teams ahead of them. To cap off a day on which all the games were decided by a single goal margin, Richard Kocass' Coasties earned three points for themselves with a close 1-0 win over George Alarcon's Lions to give the visitors six points for the day.

Southern Branch continue to do well at South Nowra but AC United kept them honest and ensured that the home team did not have it all their own way on the day. In the 13s Steve Davison's Southern Branch team got the club off to the best possible start with a very sound 5-1 win over the Sam Fornito coached AC. And Southern continued to dominate the day with a tight 1-0 victory in the 14s. Ray Tweedie was disappointed when his 15s lost 5-0 to the Luigi Bucciarelli coached visitors. The 16s was a predictably close encounter with Joe lurb's AC gaining the upper hand with a 1-0 victory over Norm Boardman's lads.

Revolution

MATCHES OF THE ROUND

SUPER YOUTH LEAGUE

In the 13s the clash between Sydney Olympic and Eastern Suburbs catches the eye. Top sport Olympic have yet to drop a point this season and look the goods for going on with the job. However, several of their opponents might want to have something to say about that. Eastern Suburbs, currently in third position are certain to be one of those. Easts have been performing well and they will be keen to knock off the top team but they will really have their work cut out for them. Olympic will be playing a rare home game at Potts Park and their defensive record is second to none. They are certainly no slouches in the goal scoring department either with the best attacking record in the age group.

The clash between Southern Districts and Marconi holds some interest in the 14s. Although they are separated by several places on the table, the rivalry between the two has never been in question and so this game has plenty to recommend it as a match to watch. Southern Districts will be very keen to hold onto their second spot on the table and maybe eve overtake Blacktown City who face Gladesville Hornsby on the same day. On the other hand, Marconi will be eager to make some progress on the table to get out of the bottom third.

Gladesville Hornsby will host Blacktown City at Christie Park in the 15s and the outcome is anything but a foregone conclusion. Gladesville are in fifth position and they will be desperate to climb into a better position. They are expected to fiercely protect their own turf and should make things very difficult for the visitors. The Demons are currently third and they will be wanting to hold onto that. They have been performing consistently and they have the firepower to beat anyone in this league.

It is difficult to go past the clash between Parramatta Eagles and Sutherland Shire in the 16s at Melita Stadium. Parramatta have been in outstanding form this season and are widely rated by all observers as the team to beat in this age group. That is precisely what Sutherland will be aiming to do. Home ground advantage may well swing things Parramatta's way but that does not take into account the fighting spirit for which the Sutherland lads well known.

DIVISION ONE YOUTH LEAGUE

There is no doubt that the match between Central Coast and St George in the 13s will be very watchable. Playing at their beloved Pluim Park always gives the Coasties a tremendous advantage but St George are sure to come out with all guns blazing for this one. Saints have a very good defensive record and they do well in front of goal as well so they will not be easybeats. The Coasties also have good attacking credentials but their defence leaks a few goals and that might be a telling factor.

Although it is a middle-of-the-table encounter, the Bonnyrigg White Eagles match against Ryde City has much to recommend it. The teams are locked together on nine points and the winner will have a chance of moving closer to the top four without being able to claim a spot in that elite category. The White Eagles have the better attacking record but their defence appears to be a little suspect. Ryde have not scored as many goals but their defence seems to hold together reasonably well.

Blacktown Association and Illawarra Lions are sure to be going hammer and tongs in their 15s match on the weekend. There is so much to offer the winner that neither will be able to lose concentration for even a moment because they could be made to pay dearly. Their attacking and defensive records are remarkably similar but it must be said that Blacktown have played two more games.

Bankstown Association will meet Penrith Panthers in the 16s match at Neville Reserve on Saturday and picking the winner is anyone's guess. Their are in third and fourth places, separated only by goal difference so they will both be eager to gain the upper hand. The Panthers have a better attacking record but there does not seem to be much wrong with Bankstown's defence.

DIVISION TWO YOUTH LEAGUE

For the 13s, the selection for match of the round goes to the Mount Pritchard clash with the table-topping Hills United at Cook Park, Mt Pritchard. Only goal difference separates the top six teams in this age group so there are great rewards for the winner of this one. Hills have the better attacking record and their defence isn't too bad either. The Mounties have scored less goals but their defence appears to be very tight.

In the 14s the match between Hajduk Wanderers and Hawkesbury City attracts some attention. Both will be wanting the full ration of points from this one so they can press their claims for a spot in the top four. Their records are very similar and the home ground advantage may just be enough to swing the result for the Wanderers.

The Mt Druitt Town Rangers v Parramatta City match in the 15s looks interesting. Parramatta will be looking for the points so they can stay within striking distance of the top two but Mt Druitt can never be underestimated, especially when they are playing at Popondetta Park. A win here would help them to move closer to the top group.

There can be no doubt that the top of the table clash between Mount Pritchard and Hills United will hold the most interest in the 16s age group this week. The Mounties are yet to drop a point and they are playing at home but it is certain that Hills will want to overtake them with a grab at the full measure of points. Neither team has scored a lot of goals and their defences are as tight as drums so a very narrow outcome is expected.
